Proverbs 25:2-10

² It is the glory of God to conceal a matter; to search out a matter is the glory of kings.

³ As the heavens are high and the earth is deep, so the hearts of kings are unsearchable.

⁴ Remove the dross from the silver, and a silversmith can produce a vessel;

⁵ remove wicked officials from the king's presence, and his throne will be established through righteousness.

⁶ Do not exalt yourself in the king's presence, and do not claim a place among his great men;

⁷ it is better for him to say to you, "Come up here," than for him to humiliate you before his nobles.

What you have seen with your eyes

⁸ do not bring hastily to court, for what will you do in the end if your neighbor puts you to shame?

⁹ If you take your neighbor to court, do not betray another's confidence,

¹⁰ or the one who hears it may shame you and the charge against you will stand.

Please pray for the following people:

Dolores Peterson, Millie Snyder, Mary Betterman, Ron Wipf, JoEllen Horazuk, Val Molin, Yvonne Breeschoten, Sue Pedersen

Luke 14:1, 7-14

¹ One Sabbath, when Jesus went to eat in the house of a prominent Pharisee, he was being carefully watched.

⁷ When he noticed how the guests picked the places of honor at the table, he told them this parable: ⁸ "When someone invites you to a wedding feast, do not take the place of honor, for a person more distinguished than you may have been invited. ⁹ If so, the host who invited both of you will come and say to you, 'Give this person your seat.' Then, humiliated, you will have to take the least important place. ¹⁰ But when you are invited, take the lowest place, so that when your host comes, he will say to you, 'Friend, move up to a better place.' Then you will be honored in the presence of all the other guests. ¹¹ For all those who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted."

¹² Then Jesus said to his host, "When you give a luncheon or dinner, do not invite your friends, your brothers or sisters, your relatives, or your rich neighbors; if you do, they may invite you back and so you will be repaid. ¹³ But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind, ¹⁴ and you will be blessed. Although they cannot repay you, you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."

150 Years of Memories

In 1950, Christ Lutheran celebrated our 75th anniversary with a congregational photo outside in front of the church. Rev. Paul Gustafson was the pastor, seated in the middle. This year marks our 150th anniversary, and we will also take a congregational photo on Heritage Sunday, December 14, 2025.
